PROMINENT JUDGES WILL WORK AT FAIR

PORTERVILLE, May 19 — Prominent west coast judges will be in Porterville today, Friday and Saturday to work the Porterville Fair, and they will be donating their services to junior exhibitors because they like the idea of a community putting on its own fair without digging into the state money.

400 HEAD OF LIVESTOCK LISTED FOR FAIR

PORTERVILLE, May 19 — Four hundred head of livestock will be shown at the 19th annual Porterville fair, today, Friday and Saturday, according to Fair Director Chet Gilbert, who heads up the livestock division.

Gilbert states that Future Farmer and 4-H club entry cards show 57 hogs, 102 lambs, 130 beef cattle, and 52 dairy animals.

RIATA RANCH WILD ANIMAL LAND FEATURES YOUNGSTERS AND ANIMALS

PORTERVILLE, May 19 — A unique combination of wild animals and teenage boys and girls will be presented at the Porterville Fair, this week, when Tommy Meyers, of Exeter, brings his Riata Ranch Wild Animal Land exhibit to the fair grounds.

Included in the exhibit will be chimpanzee, wild sheep, llamas, zebras, a zebra cow, a camel, a zookie, two midget horses, one with a small colt, goats, a wolf and other animals.

WALT DISNEY SAYS "HELLO PORTERVILLE"

PORTERVILLE, May 19 — What with Walt Disney practically our next door neighbor as a result, of Disney enterprises taking over development of the Mineral King area, it's just sort of natural that Walt is saying, "Hello Porterville", through his ambassador to the world, Miss Connie Swanson, and that Porterville is saying to Walt and Connie, "It's sure nice to see you."

The exchange of greetings is all wrapped up in the Porterville fair, and the Porterville chamber of commerce, since Connie will be in town tomorrow to participate in the fair, and the chamber will entertain her at a luncheon at Gang Sue's, at noon.

Traveling with Miss Swanson will be her chaperone, Miss Vin Riley, and her tour manager, Frank Forsythe. They'll be taken to the fair grounds a 10 a.m. by Ed. Jones, in his famous 1913

MISS CONNIE SWANSON, Disneyland's Ambassador To The World for 1966, who will be on the Porterville Fair grounds Friday morning to present ribbons in livestock classes, and who will appear in the outdoor Mardi Gras grandstand show at 8 P.M. to bring greetings from Walt Disney and to make a special presentation to Porterville Mayor Aubrey M. Lumley. She will be entertained by the Porterville chamber of commerce at Gang Sue's at a noon luncheon.

Action Events Slated For Porterville Fair

PORTERVILLE, May 19 — Action events will highlight the three-day Porterville fair that opens this morning at the fair grounds and municipal ball park.

First morning feature is an open Quarter horse show with performance classes including working cow horses, barrel racing, and cattle penning.

More riding action will be seen Saturday morning when junior riders hit the leather in the fair's annual gymkhana.

A new event for this year's fair, a championship pony pulling contest, is scheduled for Saturday afternoon, with finals Saturday night.

And usually there is some extra curricular action when exhibitors parade their livestock — Future Farmers tonight, and 4-H club members tomorrow night.

Action for the smaller youngsters will be coming up tonight during the fair's annual pet parade.

New also this year is the Riata ranch show, that will include a wild animal exhibit, in which the (Continued On Page 2)

THREE BANDS IN CONCERT AT FAIR

PORTERVILLE, May 19 — Three bands will be heard in concert on the main stage during the Porterville fair that opened this morning.

Tonight, at 7:15 o'clock, the Pioneer Junior high band, directed by Reynold Rutledge, will be on stage; tomorrow night, at 7 o'clock, Director Jerry Kuhlmann will present his Bartlett band; on Saturday night, also at 7 o'clock, the famous Panther band from Porterville high school will be heard under the baton of Buck Shaffer.

FAT STOCK SALE IS HIGH POINT

PORTERVILLE, May 16 — Junior fat stock auction at the Porterville fair, Saturday, shapes up as a high-light event for everyone concerned — climax of a project both from the standpoint of accomplishment and money, and since buyers at the sale will get the finest locker meat that it is possible to produce.

Col. "Skinner" Hardy, of Bakersfield, will replace his late father, Col. Harry Hardy, as the auctioneer, donating his services; the sale will start at 1:00 p.m., with 113 head of steers, 37 hogs and 75 lambs listed to sell.

All animals will be finished, groomed and fitted to perfection, as they must be to compete in the Porterville fair — in fact fat stock will be as good as any shown in the western states.

For the junior exhibitors, the sale will mark the conclusion of an organization project, and the final bid on each animal will determine whether or not the project has been financially successful.

As for buyers, the premium price that Porterville fair fat stock commands is still a bargain price, for that price, after meat is wrapped and in the food locker, is cheap compared to retail prices for equal quality meat.

Donating six months of free food locker space to sale buyers are Jones Locker service, Bestway Foods, Poplar Locker service, and Terra Bella market.

Manager of the sale is Judge George Carter, assisted by Chet Griswold; on a special sale promotion committee are: Loren Schmid, Jennie Lunstad, and Ray Jones; a special sale brochure has been published and mailed by Crocker-Citizen National bank.

Earl W. Reed will clerk the sale; Emerson Leasure will work as cashier; Porterville branch of the Security First National bank will (Continued On Page 10)

PACIFIC TELEPHONE TO GIVE CALLS

PORTERVILLE, May 19 — Free long distance telephone calls to any state in the union, including Alaska and Hawaii, are being given by Pacific Telephone at the company exhibit on the Porterville fair grounds.

Twelve phones are connected into a central system; a giant wheel spins the lucky phone; the winner can place a three-minute long distance call to anyone in the United States. Only adults are allowed to place calls.

MASTER OF CEREMONIES at the Porterville Fair's annual livestock exhibitors' banquet will be Tulare County District Attorney Jay Ballantyne, who will participate in the presentation of special awards won at the fair by Future Farmers and 4-H club members. The banquet is set for the Porterville armory at 7:00 p.m.; host is the Porterville branch of the Security First National bank.

BREAKFAST SATURDAY FOR BAND

PORTERVILLE, May 19 — Annual Panther band and Studio band breakfast, sponsored by the Porterville Exchange club, is set for the Village Shopping Center, Saturday, May 21, with serving to continue from 5:00 a.m. until 8:00 a.m.

As in past years, all proceeds go to the bands; because of merchant donations, virtually all money from the sale of breakfast tickets goes into the band activities fund.

Principal donator of food is the Food Banks store in the Village Shopping center, managed by Ken Gleghorn. Also donating are Olson (Continued On Page 2)

LET'S GO TO THE FAIR

It's that time again — Porterville fair time — for the 19th time, no less.

We've told you before about the Porterville fair, how it is the largest in California that operates without state money, how it was started by a small group of Porterville chamber of commerce people and how support has grown through the years; we've told you about public donations of time and material and money and work that made possible the facilities that the fair has; we've often emphasized that the Porterville fair is "your fair", and it really is, because so many good, public spirited folks have made the fair a total community project.

And of course you know how Future Farmers and 4-H club members look forward to the fair; how the fat stock auction has become one of the finest in the state; how actually hundreds of boys and girls participate, in one way or another.

But it's not all just for the youngsters. Many business firms show commercial exhibits; many adults work in home-operated food and drink concessions; and, of course fair directors, along with Future Farmers and 4-H leaders, plus other men and women who are just naturally interested in fairs and youngsters, give of their time and talents to make the Porterville fair go.

And wrapped up under the general title of entertainment are activities that keep the Porterville fair a fine, family-type event.

Now, we won't try to tell you that you have a duty to support the fair or to attend the fair. We just think that if you do not attend, you're missing something — You're missing some old-fashioned, relaxed family fun and enjoyment.

So let's go to the fair — and have fun. It's at Porterville, you know, today, tomorrow and Saturday.

WINNERS IN the Tulare County 4-H Dress review, held last Thursday evening at the Porterville Women's clubhouse, were: Bernadine Ribeiro, Waukena, dress review winner, and Kathleen Souza, Pleasant View, alternate; simplicity awards: Rhonda Greaver, Waukena, Jane Light, Liberty, Bernadine Ri-

We Only Heard

BY BILL RODGERS

A GREAT American custom is to crash the gate at public events.

BUT BEFORE you try to talk or pry your way into the Porterville fair, remember that this fair is self-supporting. It has to make a profit through gate admissions, and other sources of revenue, or it can't exist.

AND AFTER all these years, directors know most of the gimmicks. "I have to get in just for a minute to see my boy", or "I'm working in a booth", or "Why should I pay? I'm not going to watch the show", or "I paid yesterday, I'll just be inside for a minute", or "I'm a club leader, I shouldn't have to pay."

THEN THERE is the guy who hits the outside of the gate crowd and slips on through, or the adult who climbs the fence, or the fellow who goes in early, along with exhibitors who have livestock to take care of, then gets a pass-out stamp for a free ride, or the guy who makes it so miserable for a friend who is donating his services as a gate keeper that the friend lets him in rather than continue a most unpleasant argument.

WE SUPPOSE there are other methods of gate crashing, and without doubt, there will be those chiselers who will find a way this year to get onto the grounds without paying.

WE HOPE those who make it pause for a moment, after they are

FATHER-SON YMCA CAMP SET JUNE 10-12

TULARE, May 19 — Fathers and sons interested in spending a weekend together fishing and camping in the mountains are invited to attend the Tulare County YMCA's Father-Son camp at Camp Tulequolia on June 10 - 12, according to Camp Director Stanley Dean. The camp is open to all fathers and sons of all ages.

Fishing, swimming, boating, hiking, and camp fires are among the many activities available to anyone who attends the camp. There is plenty of time to just relax and enjoy the mountains, Dean added, and the national parks are within a few miles.

Reservations for the camp are required, and may be made at the YMCA, 211 W. Tulare in Visalia or 165 E. Putnam in Porterville. Cost is $8.00 for adults, $6.00 for children 6-14, and no charge for children under 6.

The YMCA has always stressed family activities, Dean said, and the father-son camp is one means of bringing a father and son closer together. Family camps for all members of the family on Fourth of July and Labor Day weekend are also planned, and are still open.

safely lost in the crowd, and say to themselves, "Brother, you're a real bum. If enough of us can get through, we'll kill this fair, deadlier than a mackerel."

THEN WE hope he lifts up his head in pride, pats himself on the back, and tells his friends what a great guy he really is.

animals are handled by youngsters who are "students" at the ranch; these students will also perform in special events during the night show tomorrow and Saturday.

And action of a different sort — but often exciting action — can be expected at the fair's fat stock auction Saturday afternoon.

Breakfast tickets sell for $1.00, adults, and 75 cents, children under 12 years. Door prize will be a 19-inch RCA portable television set.

Dale Weaver, breakfast chairman, says that a record crowd is expected this year. He suggests that folks go to the breakfast, then on out to the Porterville fair grounds to enjoy the final day of the fair.

Breakfast tickets can be obtained from Exchange club members, and at the breakfast.

THE LAMP IN THE WINDOW

Symbolic of the earlier days of American pharmacy was the lighted lamp in the drugstore window.

All through the night it glowed, a beacon of hope, a symbol of unselfish service.

Although the historic lamp is now practically extinct, the fundamentals of pharmaceutical practice have changed but little. The responsibilities of the pharmacist are greater today than ever before — he is a vital factor in medical care.

NEW REQUIREMENTS FOR FIRE PERMIT

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19—Significant changes have been made in the requirements for National Forest campfire permits in California, Regional Forester Charles A. Connaughton has announced.

A campfire permit will no longer be required to build a campfire either in the stove provided, or in a personally owned stove while within the limits of any designated Forest Service camp or picnic ground. A campfire permit will be required for a camp fire outside of these designated campgrounds and in certain isolated trail camps, wilderness camps and campsites that are intended for seasonal use by hunters and fishermen.

To camp outside a designated campground in any of the four Southern California National forests (Cleveland, San Bernardino, Angeles and Los Padres) a special permit valid for a specific time and place must be obtained from a Forest Officer in the National Forest where the fire is to be used.

In the other National forests in the state, including the Sequoia National forest, the permit to build campfires outside of designated campgrounds, can be obtained at any Forest Service station and at some California Division of Forestry and County Fire stations.

You'll meet your friends at the Porterville Fair — Everyone will be there.

PEOPLES' WILL IS NULLIFIED BY A COURT THAT DERIVES ITS POWER FROM THE PEOPLE

By CLEM WHITAKER, JR.

The renewed flap over Proposition 14, the California Constitutional Amendment — adopted by a 2-1 vote by the people — precluding the Legislature from adopting laws restricting the right of property owners to sell or rent property raises a series of significant questions.

The State Supreme Court, in striking down Proposition 14 by a 5-2 vote, did so on the so-called "equal protection" clause of the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. For the Court majority, Justice Paul Peek stated:

"It is beyond dispute that the 14th Amendment, through the equal protection clause, secures the right to acquire and possess property of every kind."

Judicial Disagreement

For the Court minority, Justice Thomas P. White, stated:

"Nothing in the Federal Constitution gives one citizen the right to acquire property from another citizen who does not wish to sell it to him even if the refusal is based on race or religion."

The essence of the California State Supreme Court majority ruling thus appears to state that a legally adopted amendment to the State Constitution (in this instance Proposition 14) is invalid because of an alleged conflict with the Federal Constitution.

Should this position be upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court, the interesting question is raised of the necessity for the currently proposed "open housing" section of President Johnson's 1966 civil rights package which is put forth to preclude discrimination in the sale and rental of housing.

Equally interesting however is the actual language of the 14th Amendment which has become the subject of such bitterly controversial interpretations. The 14th Amendment is comprised of five sections. Section 1 contains the "equal protection" clause:

"Equal Protection" Clause

"All persons born or naturalized in the United States

LOCAL SOLDIERS GET MP TRAINING

Private Larry C. Lambert, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lambert, Porterville, and Private Ruben Sandoval, son of Mr. and Mrs. Atanacio Sandoval, Strathmore, completed eight weeks of military police training at the Army Southeastern Signal school, Fort Gordon, Ga., early this month.

The pair were trained in civil and military law, traffic control, map reading, prisoner-of-war control and self defense.

The two 19-year-old soldiers entered the Army last December and completed basic training at Fort Hood, Tex.

Lambert graduated from Porterville high school in 1964 while Sandoval is a 1965 graduate of Strathmore high school.

We tried to find a way to procrastinate and not write a column this week but the lowly editor "conned" us out of our good idea. Not only that he tried to sell us tickets to some breakfast some band is having somewhere. He should know that some attractive band members had sold us tickets to this breakfast while we were still eating at the last place he sold us tickets to.

We may someday eat a meal at home but this week we look forward to such things as tacos, fried chicken, hamburgers, and orange juice at the fair. Plus the aforementioned band breakfast Saturday morning in the Village Shopping Center. Some people go to see the projects and the exhibits but we go to eat. The food gets better and we get bigger every year. They may have to widen the aisles before many more meals go by.

We hope to see you up there. Our exhibit is outside and, in cooperation with Porterville Ready Mix, features a cool, comfortable patio of long lasting concrete surrounded by what we hope are long lasting plants. This year we are stressing low maintenance gardening. This is the cowards way out and in this case allows us to be lazy. However we hope to make the point that your yard could also be simple and easy to care for.

Meanwhile we are still operating a business at fifty five North "E" Street just west of the S.P. railroad. Plenty of shady parking, lots of plants, all the stuff necessary to make them grow, and free advice on any subject you wish to talk about. Open seven days a week.

No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

Justice Marshall F. McComb hit at the heart of the controversy when he stated in his Proposition 14 dissent: "By its decision our court has effectively nullified the will of the people from whom it derives its power."

"I completely disagree with the majority that the subject enactment encourages discriminatory conduct. To me, section 26 (Proposition 14) is a restatement of a fundamental principle that all property owners have a right to enjoy or to dispose of their property in any lawful manner, in their absolute discretion."

WHAT'S DOING?

Now, when you move, we can help you arrange for telephone service at your new location. And it doesn't matter whether you're moving within California or across the nation... our Easy Move Plan is effective throughout the Bell System. And it really is easy. When you call our local Business Office to have your phone disconnected, our Service Representative will offer to make all the necessary arrangements for telephone service at your new address. And you'll have one thing less to worry about on moving day.

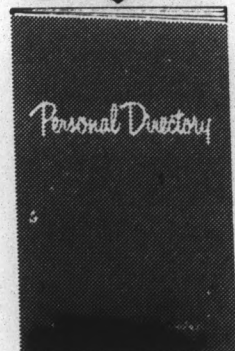

Now, boys and girls who can't go to school themselves are having school brought to them — by telephone, with Tele-Class service. A teacher with special phone equipment dials her class to order every school day. With a push of a button, she can talk to all her students at once... or with each one privately. Tele-Class service combines general classroom discussion with individual attention. And best of all, it keeps homebound children from falling behind in their studies. This telephone teaching service was developed by Pacific Telephone in cooperation with the Los Angeles City School System.

I heard a story recently about a woman who called Information so often, she felt she should apologize to the Operator. "I hate to keep calling you," she said, "but they just repapered my room and covered up all my phone numbers."

If you would like a handy place to keep numbers you call often, just call our Porterville Business Office 784-0400 and ask for a free Personal Directory.

TO COIN a phrase, we might say that time flies. Photo shows Marilyn Keck, age 5 years, receiving a first-place ribbon from Maxine Hodgson in the first Porterville fair horse show, 19 years ago. Marilyn, now Mrs. Ronald Miller, resides with her family at Fair Oaks and has two sons, one three years old, the other five years. Marilyn's father, John Keck, helped with that first fair horse show and has stayed in the fair business ever since, serving now as chairman of the Porterville fair's annual gymkhana, set for Saturday at 10 A.M., in the horse show arena.

ROUGHING IT THE EASY WAY IS OFFERED TO VACATIONERS AT CAMP EDISON-SHAVER LAKE IN SIERRA

CAMP EDISON, May 19 — Vacationers and fishermen who like some of the comforts of home after a day of roughing it in the great outdoors are reminded that "Camp Edison-Shaver Lake", about 50 miles northeast of Fresno on Highway 168, opened its gates for the summer season last Thursday.

Last year more than 10,000 campers enjoyed the luxurious (by camping standards) facilities of the all-electric showcase camp built by Southern California Edison company for public use, bringing with them an assortment of "creature comforts" ranging from electric blankets to rotisseries.

Electric outlets are provided at every tent and trailer site, and electric cooking centers, with built-in equipment, are provided throughout the camp.

The camping fee, a nominal $1.00 per night per car, covers the use of all facilities — which include also boat launching, hot water showers, dressing rooms, laundry tubs, modern restrooms, and wood for camp fires.

Located in a pine forest on the shores of Shaver lake, Camp Edison includes 100 sites — 50 for trailers (length-limit, 30 feet) and 50 for tents. All sites are assigned on a first-come, first-served basis, and there is a two-week limit on their use.

If the camp fills up, campers will be directed to other camps or motels in the area — including the "Dora Belle" camp, also on Shaver lake, which is maintained by the U.S. Forest service.

At the same time, names will be placed on a priority list, from which vacancies are filled each day in the order of registration, according to Camp Manager Howie Weeks.

Weeks reports that the water level in Shaver has been rising steadily and that the lake is being stocked once a week with eight to ten-inch rainbows and Eastern Brookies — the latter an innovation this year.

Edison also maintains its own trout rearing ponds, supplementing stocking by the state Department of Fish and Game, under the direction of an experienced fish biologist, Norman Alstot.

The primary purpose of the ponds, however, is research, to determine and maintain optimum for fish life throughout Edison's "Big Creek" hydroelectric area in the High Sierra. About 100,000 trout are raised and released each year.

BURTON 4-H CLUB OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

BURTON, May 19 — New senior officers of the Burton 4-H club were installed at May meeting of the club, with Bucky Bennett, president-elect of the Vandalia 4-H club, acting as installing officer.

A check of $50.00 was presented to Glen Edwards, chairman of the Seicon project this year. Other part of Burton's Community service was purchase of a transistor radio for a small boy, Clifton Lynch, who was severely burned a few months ago in Porterville.

Clifton, who was attending John Doyle school at the time, is now in the Children's Valley hospital in Fresno. According to nurses, the boy was delighted with the radio which will help him pass many lonely hours as his parents have moved to Bakersfield and cannot visit him too often. Burton 4-H thanks Jones Hardware for selling them the radio at cost.

Four girls from Burton 4-H were in the Junior Dress review, Pattie Lewis, Andrea Mock, Kathy Reisig and Karen Pernu.

STATE SETS PUBLIC UTILITIES VALUE HIGHER THAN LAST YEAR FOR TAX BASE

SACRAMENTO, May 19 — The State Board of Equalization has set the collective value of California's 10 major privately-owned utilities $63 million higher this year for county tax purposes. The state property tax agency said the 10 utilities, representing more than 90 percent of the assessment of 150 utilities in the state, were valued at $4,306,700,000, up one and a half percent from 1965.

State Controller Alan Cranston, the Board's valuation committee chairman, said seven of the 10 gained in value, two were lower and another unchanged.

Local jurisdictions levied $357 million in taxes last year on utility assessments valued by the Board.

Member John W. Lynch said each utility can appeal its assessment before the Board makes the assessment final in August.

Pacific Telephone and Telegraph, the state's biggest taxpayer, was valued at $1,350,000, a gain of $24 million over 1965, and Pacific Gas and Electric was up $20 million at $1,234,000,000.

Other major utilities' values were: Southern California Edison — $753.5 million, up $21.5 million; San Diego Gas and Electric — $133.6 million, up $600,000; Pacific Lighting group — $304 million, down $14 million; General Telephone — $267 mil-

GROUP OPENINGS AT CAMPGROUNDS NEAR HUME LAKE

There are "still some openings for the group campgrounds near Hume lake, according to Glenn S. Smith Sequoia National forest district ranger, at Pinehurst.

Aspen Hollow and Logger Flat are two special campgrounds which cater especially to the needs of camping organizations, Boy Scouts, YMCA, Girl Scouts, fraternal and social groups are making use of the facilities this summer. Each of the campgrounds accommodate approximately 50 people and are available on a reservation basis.

Aspen Hollow is booked solid from July 23-August 27 but has some openings before and after that period. Logger Flat is reserved for August but has some openings also. The weekly reservation periods begin Saturday at noon and expire at noon the following Saturday. Occasionally daily reservations are made. "A special charge of $10 per day or $50 per week is made for use of these special campgrounds," Smith said.

Hearing Set On Special Mineral King Bear Hunt

The California fish and game commission has scheduled hearings for an antelope hunt in northeastern California, a restricted deer and bear hunt in the Mineral King federal game refuge, Tulare county; and a special buck hunt in a fish and game refuge in Amador county.

The commission, meeting in San Diego April 29, scheduled the antelope hunt hearing for June 9, 7 p.m., in the Veterans Memorial Hall in Alturas. Commission Vice President Henry Clineschmidt will be the hearing officer.

The department of fish and game proposed the hunt for 265 adult buck antelope permits. The hunt would be divided into seven zones and would cover most of Modoc county and portions of Lassen, Shasta, and Siskiyou counties.

Hunts were held the past two years with 240 permits issued each year; 183 animals were taken in 1964 and 141 in 1965. The department's February census tallied 2,898 animals, highest in recent years.

The bear and special hearing on the federal game refuge deer hunt will be held June 9, 8 p.m. in the County Court House, Visalia. Hearing officer will be Commissioner Thomas H. Richards, Jr.

The DFG proposed issuing permits for 200 buck deer in this hunt. There would be no permit fee and successful applicants also would be allowed to take one bear in the hunt area, provided they possessed valid 1966 bear tags.

Deer and bear hunting in the national refuge were made possible by an agreement between the DFG, the National Park service, and the number of hunters to 200 for the first year for safety reasons, because past experience has indicated that an area is swamped with large numbers of hunters the first time it is opened to hunting. No dogs would be allowed in the area.

The special deer hunt in Fish and Game Refuge 1 J, Amador County, was scheduled at the request of Commissioner Dante J. Nomellini. He said this hunt was requested at the special deer hunt hearing he had previously presided over in Jackson.

The proposal is for 200 permits to take bucks, forked-horn or better. The hearing will be held June 14, 8 p.m. in the County Court House in Jackson.

Following the hearings, hearing officers will report their findings to the commission which will then decide whether or not to hold the hunts.

The commission will adopt special deer hunts for 1966-67 at its June 24 meeting in San Francisco.

By Glenn M. Edwards

When you are perusing this column, the Student Body elections will be in full swing, since election day is May 19. At the time of this writing, the outcome of the elections are very much in doubt — or as much in doubt as they can be.

When I said last week that the voice of the politician was heard in our land, don't feel alarmed if you don't hear it. There aren't too many candidates.

Campaign speeches were given last Monday. A bevy of beautiful maidens tried out for song leaders. There was a group of yell leaders, two recording secretaries, and one corresponding secretary. Just for good measure, there were two vice-presidential candidates and two presidential candidates: to-wit: Glenn Edwards, Terry Ng, Steve Lieurance, and David Richardson — in that order. Apparently, no one is interested in running for Student Body treasurer. This is probably because Darlene Macht is such a tough act to follow.

I'll keep my eye peeled, my ear to the ground, my shoulder to the wheel, my nose to the grindstone, and let you know next week who won what.

A very important activity is coming up this week out at Harvard-on-the-Highway. It is the annual Folk Music Festival, to be held tomorrow (May 20) at 8:00 p.m. Actually, there are two concerts tomorrow. The first is from 1:00 to 4:00 in the quadrangle at the college, and the second will be at 8:00 in the college auditorium.

The first concert will feature purely local talent, while the second concert will include professionals from as far away as San Diego and San Francisco, in addition to Porterville's own budding Bob Dylans.

Children District VII bowling championship recently in Fresno. In addition to the team victory, a high individual trophy as well as the high game trophy for men and also for women were won. The bowlers will represent District VII in the CCRC State Bowling Tournament slated later this spring in Los Angeles.

Biggest Dollar's

states; commercial exhibits; action events; an expanded carnival; an open Quarter horse show and a gymkhana for junior riders total up to what Porterville fair directors believe is the greatest entertainment dollar value anywhere.

To coin a phrase; Come one, Come all; the more the merrier.

Those of you who did not see the College's production of The Gondoliers last Friday or Saturday missed a good show — or so I'm told. As I was barreling down the road to the college a good 15 minutes before the performance started, the left rear wheel fell off my car. It wouldn't have fallen off except for the fact that someone had taken the trouble to remove all five lug bolts. It took me two hours, the running length of the performance, to repair the damage.

I'm not particularly upset over the fact that someone took my lug bolts. I'm not particularly upset by the fact that I was almost killed. I don't care if anyone hates little ol' me — but whomever touches my Model A Ford shall die the death.

In the fair's Mardi Gras show which plays its first run tonight in front of the municipal ball park grandstand, world-famous acts will be presented: Zavatta's Dogs, Pepe the clown, Irma and Reo with their comedy acrobatics, Kayletta on the trapeze; Kitty Kat on the sway pole, the remarkable Frauens, and Bob Bonney with his novelty music routine make up the show.

On Friday night Miss Connie Swanson, Disneyland's world ambassador for 1966, will join the show; on Friday and Saturday nights the Riatta ranch youngsters will hit the spotlight; on Thursday night Future Farmers will parade their livestock and on Friday night, it will be 4-H club members with their livestock.

On both Friday and Saturday nights, special awards will be presented on the main stage.

The professional show, backed by the music of Al Lyons and Cal Earl, will play each night of the fair.

Admission to the fair grounds, which includes the night show, is $1.50 for adults; 50 cents for high school and college students; 25 cents for elementary-age and younger boys and girls. Season tickets can be purchased on a basis of three days and nights for the price of two.

The Porterville fair is the largest event of its kind in California that operates without aid of state funds.

Speedwell, and Miss Swanson will be introduced at the livestock show rings and will present ribbons to Future Farmer and 4-H winners.

She'll be back on the grounds in time to hear the Bartlett band, then, as a feature of the outdoor, professional Mardi Gras show, will bring official greetings from Disney, and will make a special presentation to Porterville's mayor, Aubrey M. Lumley.

Tickets for the noon luncheon—limited to 75—are on sale at the Porterville chamber of commerce office for $1.50. Providing luncheon music will be Ralph Bernier at the piano.

Miss Swanson, a tour guide at Disneyland, was selected as ambassador to the world for 1966, and will travel throughout the world carrying in her portfolio the friendly spirit that has made Disneyland world famous.

in themselves, the most remarkable aspect of the exhibit is that boys and girls take care of them, handle them, and ride some of them.

In addition some of the Riatta ranch youngsters—all from Tulare county—will do a bit of entertaining of their own as an opening feature of the Mardi Gras outdoor shows on Friday and Saturday evenings.

All of the young people working with the Riatta ranch exhibit are "students" at the Riatta ranch, where Meyers teaches them horsemanship and the handling of many types of animals.

Working out of the Riatta Ranch Animal land will be two kiddie rides—a miniature western stage coach, and a burro train.

briefly the Junior 4-H camp. It is time for the members to sign up if they intend to go to camp, he said, and all members were also advised that they must turn in their project books with their entries at the Porterville Junior livestock and Community fair.

It was also brought out that it was time to decorate a fair booth. Volunteers were requested to assist, with Mrs. Barbara Crane in charge of the booth. Burton's 4-H booth will be sponsored by Juvenile and Banister's Furniture jointly this year.

Davelynn Chamberlain led the 4-H pledge; flag salute was led by Bill Baty.
